THE CHURCH OF JESUS CHRIST OF LATTER-DAY SAINTS

Patriarchal Blessing

Date of Blessing: 12 January 2003

Recipient: John Doe

Birthdate: 6 April, 1955

Officer: James Smith

How do you ever wanted to know what the Lord would have you do with your life would be of most worth to you? Have you pondered what life holds for you? If wonder what is the purpose of your life and where it will take you. The Bible tells that patriarchs, under inspiration and by the laying on of hands, we had in store for them.

In this day are there no patriarchs? Are the heavens closed? Has revelation of children confined to the writings of the prophets of old as contained in the Bible divine source whereby life's important questions can be answered? I affirm that there is such a source available to you.

I testify to you that today the heavens are open and since the spring of the year the Father and the Son did receive an answer to his sincere prayer, there through whom the Lord has and does reveal His word.

I witness to you that the Lord's prophet to all the world, he who holds all the keys of the Kingdom, prophet, seer, and revelator, and the president of the Lord's Kingdom of Latter-day Saints.

It was through the Prophet Joseph Smith that the Lord restored the priesthood that existed in the Primitive Church, namely, apostles, prophets, pastors, teachers, Patriarchs are charged with the duty of blessing the members of the Church of the lineage of the recipient. A patriarchal blessing also includes an inspired mission of the recipient. It may include such blessings, promises, advice, and
